No party other than the agency shall derive any rights from the Agreement.

3. Corrupt Practices

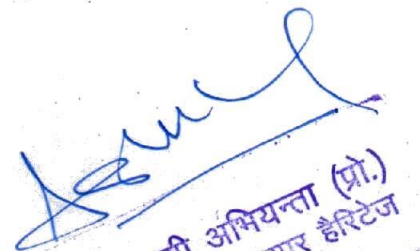

3.1 The NNJH Anticorruption Policy requires that bidders, agencies, and contractors under BMC contacts, observe the highest standard of ethics during the procurement and execution of such contracts. In pursuance of the policy, the NNJH:

(a) Defines, for the purposes of this provision, the terms set forth below as follows:

"Corrupt practice," means the offering, giving receiving, or soliciting, directly or indirectly, of anything of value to influence the action of any party in the procurement process or the execution of a contract;

"Fraudulent practice" means a misrepresentation or omission of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract;

"Collusive practices" means a scheme or arrangement between two or more bidders, with or without the knowledge of the Borrowers, designed to influence the action of any party in a procurement process or the execution of a contract;

अधिसूची अभियन्ता (प्र.)
नगर निगम जयपुर हैस्टिज
20/07/30

"Coercive practices" means harming or threatening to harm, directly or indirectly, persons, or their property to influence their participation in a procurement process, or affect the execution of a contract.

(b) Will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the bidder recommended for award has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, or coercive practices in competing for the Contract; and

(c) Will sanction a party or its successor, including declaring ineligible, either indefinitely or for stated period of time to participate in NNJH tender activities if it at any time determines that the firm has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, or coercive practices in competing for, or in executing, an NNJH contract.

4. Eligible Bidders

4.1 A Bidder must be Registered contractor/Company/NGOs/ reputed firms with at least 03 years experience in fields of Solid Waste management.

4.2 The bidder must have at least 03 year experience of conducting awareness campaign in field of Solid Waste Management and Sanitation in at least one Urban Local Body of 1 Lakh and above population.

4.3 NNJH considers a conflict of interest to be a situation in which a party has interests that could improperly influence that party's performance of official duties or responsibilities, contractual obligations, or compliance with applicable laws and regulations, and that such conflict of interest may contribute to or constitute a prohibited practice under NNJH Anticorruption Policy. In pursuance of NNJH Anticorruption Policy's requirement that bidders, agencies, and contractors observe the highest standard of ethics. NNJH will take appropriate actions, if it determines that a conflict of interest has flawed the integrity of any procurement process. Consequently, all Bidders found to have a conflict of interest shall be disqualified.' A Bidder may be considered to be in a conflict of interest with one or more parties in this bidding process if, including but not limited to:

Section V. General Conditions of Contract

1.0 Contract Documents

1.1 Subject to the order of precedence set forth in the Agreement, all documents forming the Contract (and all parts thereof) are intended to be correlative, complementary, and mutually explanatory.

20 Corrupt Practices

21 The NNJH Anticorruption Policy requires that bidders, agencies, and contractors under NNJH contracts, observe the highest standard of ethics during the procurement and execution of such contracts. In pursuance of the policy, the NNJH:

(a) Defines, for the purposes of this provision, the terms set forth below as follows:

"Corrupt practice," means the offering, giving receiving, or soliciting, directly or indirectly, of any thing of value to influence the action of any party in the procurement process or the execution of a contract;

"Fraudulent practice" means a misrepresentation or omission of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract;

"Collusive practices" means a scheme or arrangement between two or more bidders, with or without the knowledge of the Borrowers, designed to influence the action of any party in a procurement process or the execution of a contract;

"Coercive practices" means harming or threatening to harm, directly or indirectly, persons, or their property to influence their participation in a procurement process, or affect the execution of a contract.

(b) Will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the bidder recommended for award has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, or coercive practices in competing for the Contract; and

(c) Will sanction a party or its successor, including declaring ineligible, either indefinitely or for stated period of time to participate in NNJH tender activities if it at any time determines that the firm has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, or coercive practices in competing for, or in executing, an NNJH contract.

3.0 Language

3.1 The Contract as well as all correspondence and documents relating to the Contract exchanged by the Agency and NNJH, shall be written in English or Hindi language. Supporting documents and printed literature that are part of the Contract may be in another language provided they are accompanied by an accurate translation of the relevant passages in English or Hindi language, in which case, for purposes of interpretation of the Contract, this translation shall govern.

4.0 Notices

4.1 Any Notice given by one party to the other pursuant to the Contract shall be in writing. The term "in writing" means communicated in written form with proof of receipt.

7.1 The Agency's request for payment shall be made to NNJH in writing, accompanied by invoices describing, as appropriate, the services delivered and Related Services performed, and by the documents submitted pursuant upon fulfillment of all the obligations stipulated in the Contract. Report formats shall be finalized in consultation and approval of NNJH and are to be submitted with Invoice.

7.2 Payments shall be made on monthly basis by NNJH upon satisfactory work acceptance, no later than sixty (60) days after submission of an invoice or request for payment by the agency.

8.0 Taxes and Duties

8.1 For services supplied, the Successful bidder shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, duties, license fees, etc., levied by GoI & GoR incurred until delivery of the contracted services to NNJH. Successful bidder shall follow all labour laws and shall submit PF & ESIC receipts along with invoice.

9.0 Performance Security

9.1 Earnest money deposit will be converted to Performance security. This security shall be returned on the end of the contract period after deducting penalties if any.

10.0 Confidential Information

10.1 NNJH and the Agency shall keep confidential and shall not, without the written consent of the other party hereto, divulge to any third party any documents, data, or other information furnished directly or indirectly by the other party hereto in connection with the Contract, whether such information has been furnished prior to, during or following completion or termination of the Contract.

11.0 Subcontracting

11.1 The Agency is not allowed to subcontract the work assigned to them.

12.0 Insurance

12.1 The agency shall insure all his employees. NNJH shall not bear the cost of insurance of the agency manpower nor be the party of any claims.

13.0 Limitation of Liability

13.1 Except in cases of gross negligence or wilful misconduct.

(a) Neither party shall be liable to the other party for any indirect or consequential loss or damage, loss of use, loss of production, or loss of profits or interest costs, provided that this exclusion shall not apply to any obligation of the Agency to pay liquidated damages to NNJH.

14.0 Force Majeure

14.1 The Agency shall not be liable for forfeiture of its Performance Security, liquidated damages, or termination for default if and to the extent that its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the Contract is the result of an event of Force Majeure.

15.0 Termination

15.1 Termination for Default

- (a) NNJH, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of Contract, by Notice of default sent to the Agency, may terminate the Contract in whole or in part:
- (i) If the Agency fails to deliver any or all of the Services within the period specified in the Contract, or within any extension thereof granted by NNJH.
- (ii) If the Agency fails to perform any other obligation under the Contract.
- (b) In the event NNJH terminates the Contract in whole or in part, NNJH may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, Services or Related Services similar to those undelivered or not performed, and the Agency shall be liable to NNJH for any additional costs for such similar Services or Related Services.
- (c) If the Agency, in the judgment of NNJH has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices, in competing for or in executing the Contract.
- (d) any document, information, data or statement submitted by the Agency in its Proposals, based on which the Agency was considered eligible or successful, is found to be false, incorrect or misleading;
- (e) the Agency submits to the Authority a statement which has a material effect on the rights, obligations or interests of the Authority and which the Agency knows to be false;
- (f) the Authority, in its sole discretion and for any reason whatsoever, decides to terminate this Agreement.

15.2 Suspension of Agreement

The Authority may, by written notice of suspension to the Agency, suspend all payments to the Agency hereunder if the Agency shall be in breach of this Agreement or shall fail to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement, including the carrying out of the Services; provided that such notice of suspension (i) shall specify the nature of the breach or failure, and (ii) shall provide an opportunity to the Agency to remedy such breach or failure within a period not exceeding 15 (Fifteen) days after receipt by the Agency of such notice of suspension.

15.3 Termination for Convenience

NNJH may terminate the Contract, in whole or in part, at any time for its convenience. The Authority may, by not less than 15 (fifteen) days' written notice of termination to the Agency, such notice to be given after the occurrence of any of the events specified in this Clause 15.1 & 15.2, terminate this Agreement. Annexure D : Additional Conditions of Contract

1. Correction of arithmetical errors

Provided that a Financial Bid is substantially responsive, the Procuring Entity will correct arithmetical errors during evaluation of Financial Bids on the following basis:

- i. if there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected, unless in the opinion of the Procuring Entity there is an obvious misplacement of the decimal point in the unit price, in which case the total price as quoted shall govern and the unit price shall be corrected;
- ii. if there is an error in a total corresponding to the addition or subtraction of subtotals, the subtotals shall prevail and the total shall be corrected; and
- iii. if there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail, unless the amount expressed in words is related to an arithmetic error, in which case the amount in figures shall prevail subject to (i) and (ii) above.

If the Bidder that submitted the lowest evaluated Bid does not accept the correction of errors, its Bid shall be disqualified and its Bid Security shall be forfeited or its Bid Securing Declaration shall be executed.

2. Procuring Entity's Right to Vary Quantities

(i) At the time of award of contract, the quantity of Goods, works or services originally specified in the Bidding Document may be increased or decreased by a specified percentage, but such increase or decrease shall not exceed twenty percent, of the quantity specified in the Bidding Document. It shall be without any change in the unit prices or other terms and conditions of the Bid and the conditions of contract.

(ii) If the Procuring Entity does not procure any subject matter of procurement or procures less than the quantity specified in the Bidding Document due to change in circumstances, the Bidder shall not be entitled for any claim or compensation except otherwise provided in the Conditions of Contract.

(iii) In case of procurement of Goods or services, additional quantity may be procured by placing a repeat order on the rates and conditions of the original order. However, the additional quantity shall not be more than 25% of the value of Goods of the original contract and shall be within one month from the date of expiry of last supply. If the Supplier fails to do so, the Procuring Entity shall be free to arrange for the balance supply by limited Bidding or otherwise and the extra cost incurred shall be recovered from the Supplier.

3. Dividing quantities among more than one Bidder at the time of award (In case of procurement of Goods)

As a general rule all the quantities of the subject matter of procurement shall be procured from the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted. However, when it is considered that the quantity of the subject matter of procurement to be procured is very large and it may not be in the capacity of the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted, to deliver the entire quantity or when it is considered that the subject matter of procurement to be procured is of critical and vital nature, in such cases, the quantity may be divided between the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted and the second lowest Bidder or even more Bidders in that order, in a fair, transparent and equitable manner at the rates of the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted.

Annexure E

Clause 1: Fair Wage Clause

- (a) The Contractor shall pay not less than fair wages/minimum wages to labours engaged by him on the work as revised from time to time by the Government, but the Government shall not be liable to pay any thing extra for it except as stipulated in price escalation clause (clause 45) of the agreement.

Explanation: "Fair Wage" means minimum wages for time or piece work, fixed revised, by the State Government under the Minimum Wages Act, 1948.

- (b) The Contractor shall, notwithstanding the provision of any contract to the contrary, cause to be paid fair wages to labourers indirectly engaged on the work, including any labour engaged by his sub-contractors in connection with the said work as if the labourers have been immediately or directly employed by him.
